

Hulbert Outdoor Center – Seasonal Instructor

Aloha Foundation

The Hulbert Outdoor Center is seeking energetic, enthusiastic Seasonal Instructors to lead hands-on, experiential education programs for school, college, and adult groups. Our programs focus on teamwork, leadership, communication, and connection to the outdoors, all on our stunning 400+ acre campus.

What You'll Do

- Facilitate teambuilding games, group challenges, and outdoor activities
- Lead high and low ropes courses (training provided)
- Support day, overnight, and weekend programs and retreats
- Help participants build confidence, community, and leadership skills

Details

- Seasonal position (primarily spring and fall)
- Salary plus room and board provided
- Comprehensive training and professional development included

Requirements

- Strong commitment to educating children and communities
- Experience working with children preferred
- Basic First Aid Certification; Wilderness First Aid Certification preferred
- Valid driver's license – Clean driving record is desired
- Willingness to be flexible and take on varied tasks that support the program
- Mastery of all levels of training on the Hulbert Ropes Course and essential Hulbert program elements

Starting Pay: $14.42 per hour – Based on experience and certifications

To Apply: Visit us here at:

<https://events.circuitree.com/AlohaFoundation/HR/JobPostingSelection/>

If you love working with people, learning through experience, and spending your days outdoors, we'd love to have you on our team.