

Ropes Course Facilitator Hulbert Outdoor Center

The mission of the Aloha Foundation is to inspire people of all ages to learn, explore, grow, and become their best selves.

The Hulbert Outdoor Center, located in Fairlee, Vermont, provides experiential education programs for people of all ages. Current programs include day and overnight options for school groups focused on teamwork, leadership, and environmental education, school vacation camps, afterschool programs, family camps, skills certifications, and community service programs.

Position Summary

The Ropes Course Facilitator position operates during the summer season and will support the Ropes Courses of the Aloha Foundation managed by the Hulbert Outdoor Center. During the summer season, on-campus housing is provided to staff members.

Key Responsibilities

- Facilitation of Ropes Courses for Aloha Foundation summer programming.
- Working with campers across wide age groups.
- Assist in the care of all ropes course equipment being sure to report all equipment issues to the Ropes Course Director.
- Embrace challenges by choice and assist participants in their challenges.
- Teach through experience.

Requirements - Knowledge, Qualifications, Skills, Abilities

- Strong commitment to educating children and communities.
- Energetic, and dedicated to all aspects of the work to create a strong community.
- Experience working with children is preferred.
- Wilderness First Aid training available.
- Demonstrated experience teaching children, preferably in a residential camp environment.
- Able to attend mandatory training.

- Ability and desire to work positively and productively during long hours with children of diverse ages and abilities, outdoors in varied conditions.
- Willingness to take on varied tasks that support the program.
- Willingness to be flexible and to adapt your energy and work to meet the needs of the program.
- Comfortable with heights, and willingness to learn new skills.

Starting Pay: $14.42 per hour, based on experience and certifications.

To apply, please visit us at:

<https://events.circuitree.com/AlohaFoundation/HR/JobPostingSelection/>